5.3.1 Q1M	The Alumni Association An active alumni association can contribute in academic matters, learner support and mobilization of resources, both financial and non-financial, for the institution. The university has made efforts to create channels that facilitate closer ties between the alumni, students and the university. The alumni association of the University has been recently registered in October 2021. Our alumni are our international ambassadors. Alumni associations are mainly organized around universities or departments of universities. An alumni association is an association of graduates or, more broadly, of former students (alumni). The association often organizes social events, publishes newsletters or magazines, and raises funds for the organization or the institution and provides a variety of benefits and services that help alumni maintain connections to their educational institution and fellow graduates. The contribution of the alumni association is mostly in the following sectors: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The alumni support the students by mentoring them regarding career opportunities in the industry. They also create meaningful internship opportunities for ongoing or pursuing graduates. The alumni also support the institution in identifying placement opportunities for the graduating students.2. The alumni often interact with students and play an important role in helping them to prepare for the selection and recruitment processes through workshops, mock interviews and mentorship processes.	03

	3. The alumni constantly provide feedback on curriculum in order to strengthen the programme and to stay updated with the emerging working ethos of the field. 4. The alumni contribute as guest faculty, participate in committees (ex. IQAC), and as workshop facilitators at the university. Through formal and informal interactions between alumni and current students that take place during networking events, guest lectures, seminars and workshops, students are able to make more informed choices about their careers and are better prepared for the workplace.
